

FOR YOUR PROTECTION

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

YOUR RECORDS ARE PRIVATE

We understand that information we collect about is personal. Keeping these records private is one of our most important responsibilities. Swanson Eyecare, PC follows the HIPAA regulations which require many safeguards to protect your privacy. For this notice, we will use the term "records" to mean the paper or electronic records we maintain about you.

WHO SEES AND SHARES MY RECORDS?

Your records may be used and disclosed by the employees at Swanson Eyecare, PC who serve you, as well as persons or agencies who work for us and sign strict confidentiality contracts. In general, we may use and disclose your information for treatment, payment and healthcare operations. Specific examples include:

- Providing treatment for your medical problems, including testing or examining your eyes, prescribing glasses, contact lenses, or eye medications, showing you glasses or low vision aids; referring you to another doctor or eye clinic for eye care or low vision aids or services; or getting copies from another professional that you may have seen before us,
- To secure payment, for example, asking you about your health or vision care plans, or other sources of payment; contacting your insurance company to obtain authorization for your visit and services; preparing and sending bills for claims, and collecting unpaid amounts (either ourselves or through a collection agency or attorney).
- Certain business associates, who are under contract to maintain confidentiality
- For other operations to operate and manage Swanson Eyecare, PC: these include financial or billing audits, internal quality assurance, personnel decisions; participating in managed care plans; defense of legal matters; business planning.
- To remind you of an upcoming appointment, that your glasses or lenses are ready for pick-up, that your next exam is due, or that other products, treatments or services are available at our office that might help you. With your consent, we may call, email or text. We will leave you a reminder message on your voicemail, or with someone who answers your home phone if you are not home. We may leave a message for you on your cell phone if you are not available to be reached on your home phone.

COULD MY RECORDS BE RELEASED WITHOUT MY PERMISSION?

There are limited situations when we are permitted or required to disclose your records, or parts of them, without your signed permission. These situations include:

- Reports to public health authorities to prevent or control disease or other public health activities,
- To protect victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence,
- For oversight including investigations, audits, accreditation and inspections, such as are conducted by the State Department of Health, or State Pharmacy Board, and federal agencies,
- When a court order, subpoena or other legal process compels us to release information,
- Reports to law enforcement agencies when reporting suspected crimes, when responding to an emergency, or in other situations when we are legally required to cooperate,
- In connection with an emergency, or to reduce or prevent serious threat to public health and safety,
- to coroners, medical examiners and funeral directors,
- to victims of alleged violence or sex offenses,
- For workers' compensation programs,
- For specialized government functions including national security, protecting the president, operating government benefit programs, and caring for prisoners,
- In connection with "whistleblowing" by an employee of Swanson Eyecare, PC.

All other uses not described above require that we obtain your signed permission as described below.

WHAT IF MY
SOMEWHERE
ELSE

For any purpose not described above, we will release your information only with your explicit written authorization. Federal law requires that we notify you that all healthcare providers must obtain your explicit permission to release your information for any of the following:

1. To release Psychotherapy Notes,
2. For marketing purposes,
3. To sell information about you.

Please note that it is not and has never been this practice's policy to sell information about you or to use your information for marketing.

Your written permission, called an "authorization," tells us what, where, why and to whom the information must be sent. Your signed authorization is valid until the date you specify. You can revoke this authorization at any time by letting us know in writing.

You have legal rights concerning your privacy, access to your records, and the accuracy of your records:

1. If you request, we will show you your records, or give you a copy.
2. If you think some of the information is wrong, you may ask that it be changed, or that new information be added.
3. If you request, we will mail all communications to a confidential address.
4. If you request, we will provide a list of any places where your records have been sent.
5. You may request that we make additional limits on how we use or disclose your information. We must honor requests to not bill a 3rd party payer if you pay the invoice in full. For other requests, we will consider but are not obliged to honor these requests.
6. You may receive a paper copy of this notice.
